

Employee Warning Letter Templates

Attendance, performance, conduct and final warnings, verbal warning record and a warning log

First written warning: attendance

Employee
Role
Manager
Date
Warning level	First written warning

Dear [Name], This letter is a first written warning about your attendance. Since [date] you have had [number] unscheduled absences and [number] late arrivals, on [dates], which exceeds the [number] occurrences allowed under the attendance policy. None of these absences was protected leave; if any was related to a medical condition, family leave or another protected reason, tell HR so the record can be corrected. We discussed this on [date] and agreed you would [commitment]. We expect you to meet the attendance standard from today. Further unscheduled absences in the next [12 months] may lead to a final warning and then termination under the progressive discipline policy. You may respond in writing within [5] working days and your response will be kept with this letter. Support available to you includes [EAP / schedule review].

Manager: _____ Date: _____

Employee acknowledgement (receipt, not agreement): _____ Date: _____

First written warning: performance

Employee
Role
Manager
Date
Warning level	First written warning

Dear [Name], This is a first written warning about your performance in the role of [title]. On [dates] the following standards were not met: [specific examples with measures]. We discussed these on [date] and you were given [support provided]. From today the expected standard is [specific, measurable]. We will review progress on [dates] over the next [60] days. If the standard is met and sustained, this warning will be noted as resolved; if not, a final warning or a performance improvement plan may follow. You may respond in writing within [5] working days.

Manager: _____ Date: _____

Employee acknowledgement (receipt, not agreement): _____ Date: _____

First written warning: conduct

Employee
----------	--

Role
Manager
Date
Warning level	First written warning

Dear [Name], This is a first written warning for conduct. On [date] you [description of conduct], which breaches [policy]. You were given the opportunity to explain at a meeting on [date] and said [summary]. We expect this conduct not to recur. A further breach may result in a final warning or termination depending on seriousness. You may respond in writing within [5] working days.

Manager: _____ Date: _____

Employee acknowledgement (receipt, not agreement): _____ Date: _____

Final written warning

Employee
Role
Manager
Date
Warning level	Final written warning

Dear [Name], This is a final written warning. Despite the first written warning dated [date] regarding [issue], on [dates] [description]. This means the standard set in that warning has not been met. This is your last opportunity to meet the required standard of [specific]. Any further [occurrence / breach] within [12 months] will result in termination of employment. You may respond in writing within [5] working days. Support available includes [support].

Manager: _____ Date: _____

Employee acknowledgement (receipt, not agreement): _____ Date: _____

Verbal warning record

Employee
Role
Manager
Date
Warning level	Verbal warning record

Record of verbal warning given to [Name] on [date] by [manager] regarding [issue]. Facts discussed: [facts]. Employee's response: [response]. Standard expected from today: [standard]. Review date: [date]. This record is kept on file for [12 months].

Manager: _____ Date: _____

Employee acknowledgement (receipt, not agreement): _____ Date:

Warning log

Date	Employee	Level	Issue	Standard set	Review date	Outcome	Expires